True Christianity

Book 2:

Suppressed truths and a Better System

- ▶ The suppressed Gospel that the mainstream churches do not teach which appears vital for your salvation. Very few know this information.
- ▶ Great Solutions Unlike seen Elsewhere!
- ▶ The Way to a much better system like the Apostles used.
- ▶ Answers on Why the Existing System Fails.
- ▶ Reading this may cause you to begin a much more fruitful work or ministry.
- ▶ The Bible says that it will be similar in our time to the days of Noah and Lot (Luke 17:26). Almost everyone was wrong then. Therefore the majority are deceived today.
- ▶ It is important to search for the truth and not accept everything the mainstream Church says, because your salvation could depend on it.
- ▶ Deceptions and Conspiracies that we need to know about but few are aware of.

Introduction

This is challenging, rare, controversial and suppressed information, so it should be interesting and new to you. It provides you with the truth and much hope. This report also suggests simple ways in which you can enjoy your life and simple solutions enabling you to work for a more efficient and uncorrupted work force, therefore, you and society will benefit. By working for something that interests you, you can achieve a more victorious life in Christ and maybe accomplish a great work for God. We need to do God's will by copying the example of Jesus and the Apostles. By God's will I also mean God's desire. We need also to be positive and faithful about good and godly things, and to resist evil. Then we may see great joy, healings, supernatural miracles, and revival.

The First Steps to Salvation

Getting Started

It is God's will that we worship Jesus who died for mankind. He loves his chosen people so that they may be saved and have eternal life with him in Heaven. Jesus is the Son of God, and the Father wants us to know and worship him as God. He will forgive his chosen people, no matter how bad they have been, if they repent and do His will. We have all sinned and made mistakes but if his chosen people ask him for forgiveness, He will cleanse them of all unrighteousness, if they do not plan to willfully sin. Also, as an act of obedience we should be baptized, pray, seek his will, read the Bible, obey his commandments and join in fellowship. We need to seek and obey

God to have a good chance of being chosen.

Why this Site Does not Have More Information

Some people say that this site should have more information on the first steps to salvation and that it focuses too much on the world and evil and draws attention away from God. I am trying to do the opposite by saying that people are too focused on money and corrupt professions and that they should focus on God. You need to highlight and expose evil to make people aware of it and specifically what it consists of. This is to warn people so that they can either change and repent of being part of the evil system or be wary so that they will not be deceived into being part of it. Many of the Old Testament books were very focused on evil. If they did not inform people what is evil and what is sinful in detail how can we expect people to repent of their sins?

The solution is to show what the problems are so that people can make an effort to change them. If you don't clearly define the problems people will not know how to change for the better.

More detailed information on the first steps to salvation can be found on most Christian sites. Also, most people who are searching for the truth know about it anyway. Very few sites highlight the other important information on this site, so I feel the need to focus on this information to inform people of what they do not know. That is not to say that the first steps to salvation are less important. If I focus more on the first steps of salvation it will the spirit like the Apostles. People would be guided by God instead of stumbling around blind folded making the wrong decisions. We may not have to spend eons of our lives looking for things and making decisions. There may be little or no need for traditional medical therapy, as people could be supernaturally healed. There would be certainty, direction and less frustration. There would be more love, a great relationship with God and little worry. There would be a revival with maybe even skeptics coming to the Lord when they see things happening. Imagine the time it would save if we were divinely led as explained above.

We need to strive for such a system, but to achieve it we must obey God. We need a group dedicated to God to spend time doing God's will. I believe one of the most important things is to find where the genuine Christians are, so that we can have fellowship with them and grow. Strong proof and maybe video evidence is needed, as so many people have been given false claims. To achieve this, people must start working for the Lord's system. To make time for the Lord they must stop seeking money for unnecessary or ungodly things, and stop working for the inefficient corrupt mainstream system that is serving Satan. You have a great opportunity to search for some genuine Christians who are harnessing God's supernatural power. Everyone has some means to search. If you have money, you could advertise, fund searches and help pay for the cost of printing and distributing information. Also, you could fund the travel expenses of people who claim to be led by God and moving in the supernatural so that they could visit us.

You don't have to agree with me. You can do your own searching. If you can find someone moving in the supernatural they may change some of my ideas. If you want to change my ideas search for a group that is serving God and moving in the supernatural. I would like them to come and work with me.

Please help to achieve such a good system by sharing this information with others, as we need to care about them. Reading this could be the difference between them going to Heaven or Hell.

Such a good system can only be formed if people like you obey God and change from working for a corrupt, inefficient system to a much better system to help achieve God's will. Otherwise, I fear, dear brothers and sisters, you may be found guilty in God's sight of not helping to do God's work. Also, if you work for and promote evil things it distracts people from God's plan and it can also destroy lives and lead people away from God.

Please continue for more information and proof of these facts and statistics. Please inform me of other people you know who have similar beliefs. Could you also help me find committed believers who can prove that God has a hand in their lives. To achieve this I believe we need to get this information out to as many people as possible. Then there could be a revival. Please help me achieve this.

That means you need to use all your money for God's will. The only other option is you give your paid occupation to someone who will use the income wisely for God's will and you do volunteer work earning at the pension rate. This could include helping the needy or doing God's ministry using your existing skills. If you use your excess money for God's will, you will still have more money than most others who often work harder and are more clever than yourself. Also, you will have more than just the necessities if you don't waste your time on unnecessary things. Giving your current job away is probably the best option as your job probably involve promoting unnecessary or evil products and services. Also, it probably involves misleading people to be part of the world system, seek excessive money and spend money on unnecessary things. In other words you are doing more harm than good.

If you are unemployed, stop seeking a profession in a corrupt work force that gives excessive money that you may never find. Instead, you should volunteer to do God's will today. Then God's reward will be great.

Stop wasting your time and money on unnecessary things such as those mentioned above which could be considered idols or evil in God's sight. Instead use your time and money for God's ministry and helping those in need.

The disciples offended many, were put in prison and were killed for their bold testimony, but they also won many to God. The people they influenced were more committed than most today, as the bold testimony of the Apostles example motivated them to put their life right. (a) Should we be saying something like the above to the people of today?

We are Commanded to Preach

Many places in the Bible command us to preach the word. "Mark 16:15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Acts 10:42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. Romans 10:14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? Romans 10:15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"

Are There Times Where you Should Not Help Others?

We should help others with things that benefit them but a good question is should we help people to do things that are evil or harmful to them? For example, should we help people to do unnecessary or evil things? The Bible indicates that we should not, unless it is a means to get them to leave the worldly things and follow God. This is because many of these things are condemned in the Bible.

A Positive Conclusion with the Solutions

The reasons why we should seek first the kingdom of God by trying to form or find a group like the Apostles are endless. Imagine the benefits if we could move in dilute the information that I am focusing on and many people may stop reading. This is because people may think that this is just another Christian site only about the first steps to salvation.

There are Many Things to Think Positive About

There are plenty of things that we should be positive about and praise God for, despite the struggles. Often we have struggles to make us a stronger character and a stronger Christian. Maybe, often we do things that we then later find were a mistake, but through this God is teaching us. For example, I once lived to seek money through the mainstream system, as I believed that was a major purpose of life. God may have allowed me to pursue this to show me that it is not the best way to live life. I believe God is saying that the current system is wrong and that there is a much better way of living which would result in a better life for everyone. I was then led to the system explained in the next chapter that can benefit many people.

I searched for paid work but could find nothing suitable. I also tried network marketing, which promised everything but actually gave little. I spent many years of hard work inventing a large number of products at advantagein.com . Inventing useful ideas or products is beneficial. But as with most small businesses you cannot expect to make a profit. Almost all inventors fail to make a profit from their invention. These facts are explained later. In my autobiography, there is more information on the facts, ideas and products I have discovered.

I think that I have found the answer, a far superior system where we can positively encourage others and see that everyone succeeds. This will be explained later.

It would be great to start a group where we can all positively do God's will and not encourage worldly things. If we can form such a group, there may be great moves of God like in the days of the Apostles that are not seen in any churches that I know of. There is much hope that great things will still happen. It would be wonderful to see people being healed and converted in the Lord's presence.

At the same time we should refrain from evil. Instead we should love people and encourage their repentance from evil so that they can do positive godly things. The Bible condemns evil but it is also about praise, positive things and the hope for a glorious life to come for those who believe. God's word is about faith, hope and love.

Solutions. A Great New System and Group

The Solution

The solution is to form an efficient system like one developed by the Apostles, where the group works hard to do God's will, doesn't willfully spend time or money on unnecessary things and shares so that all the people are well off. We need to form a group that would mix with unbelievers, to minister to and help them. But we should not yoke with them by working with or living with the same unbelievers for a significant period of time. We should move on as Jesus and the Apostles moved on to witness to other unbelievers.

Finding Genuine Believers

One of many things our organization could do is locate and study groups or individuals that practice True Christianity. Fellowship with committed Christians will help us grow enormously. There may be true Christians or true Christian gatherings out there as committed as the Apostles who can give evidence that they are divinely led by God and use his supernatural power. Many counterfeit organizations claim this. The challenge is to find and prove who are the genuine believers and expose corruption, counterfeit churches and false doctrines so that people can be warned.

Preventing Corruption

Members could study and warn of false evangelists who weaken Christians and subtly encourage worldly living. There is strong evidence proving that some evangelists are influenced by the Vatican and are members of the Illuminati and freemasons. Please see the reference page for more information.

It is important for our Christian organization to maintain an untarnished, hard working, accountable and honest image. If people in our group are willfully lazy, corrupt or rebellious they should be expelled if they do not repent. Members would vote on a controversial decision such as to expel a member or what is necessary or unnecessary. There would have to be checks and balances in place to regulate the behaviors of the people in our group. We need to be wary that any organization can gain corrupt members so it is important to carefully scrutinize them.

A fair court system could be used where the judges and juries are carefully monitored. In the Bible they had judges and priests led by God to make the correct decisions. If we can find true believers who can produce evidence that they are led by God, the decisions should be correct.

Leaving a Corrupt System for Something Better

Our group could also work for many interesting professions to benefit the community, which would use suppressed technology that enables much more efficient and honest work compared to the corrupt mainstream workforce. Believers working for the mainstream corrupt system could change to a similar, uncorrupted occupation. This would allow Christians more freedom, opportunities and time to both meet and witness to more people. Also, they would do things in a better and more efficient way than the corrupt system permits. They would not be influenced by bad company. Therefore our members could convert more people and prove God's system really works while avoiding the corrupt world system. If Believers remain in the corrupt economic world system, they give the impression that it is fine for Christians to live in this manner. Information and Bible references are found in the chapter titled "Yoking With Unbelievers."

We are not to follow the mainstream's evil practices. Instead of using our talents to work for Satan's system, we should use them for good, godly purposes. In the Bible those in mainstream professions in the corrupt system were considered as sick, evil or suspect sinners (Matthew 9: 9-13, Luke 20:46). You can use your gifts and hobbies for God's will and enjoy it.

money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money; Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation. 25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. 26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets. Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee; sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor; He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; be content with your wages; O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things?; Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?; Thou hypocrite, ye have made it a den of thieves; Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do.; Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified."

We need to be bold like the Apostles. Question 7 of the forum gives an example of this. As Jesus and the Apostles are our example it is a very good question as to whether we should say the below to some openly rebellious people. This would not mean everyone. Please don't be offended by this example, as it is not directed towards you.

Would the Apostles say the below to the people of today? How would we say it? As an act of love, should we say something like below to people obviously in error to stir them, so that they will repent and become strong believers?

Could the following be said to people who are openly in rebellion and being paid excessive money that they spend on the wrong things? Should we be saying something like the following 5 paragraphs? The question is summarized below down to the dotted line.

"You must repent to be saved. You should use your time or money for God's will. Otherwise, you are guilty of taking other peoples jobs and income away, bankrupting or destroying small businesses that are normally earning much less than yourself and stopping people from doing God's will by denying them the funds. Therefore, you are stopping people from hearing the gospel and getting saved. Also, you will be partly responsible for other people's poverty, trauma, and illness along with suicides, mental problems and crimes by unfortunate people. Perhaps, you could be considered as bad as a criminal in God's sight and it is money that is either directly taken from poor people by you or money that they deserve but you are wrongfully accepting. This is like thieving and murder if it leads to someone else's death.

If you earn more than a pension and want wage rises that increase costs, cause others unemployment, and destroy small business, you could be even considered a worse criminal. Every hard worker is entitled to a wage. So why are you not using your money, or time to fight for the rights of those slaving in poverty, (for no more than pensioners wage) all around you, instead of greedily trying to grab more for yourself?

If you take more money than you need from the government through high public service wages it means less money for the government to help the poor.

Very few small business owners are fortunate enough to have a net earning of more than a pension. If you do, but don't use your profits for God's will, you are guilty of unfairly competing against and destroying other small businesses.

before the unjust, and not before the saints? 2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life? 4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church. 5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?"

Jesus and the Apostles were very bold and rebuked and condemned evil. They even openly rebuked people in the church for doing evil, in order to strengthen the church. There were examples when even physical force was used to correct them. In Nehemiah 13:25, Nehemiah cursed, struck and pulled out the hair of the Jews who rebelled by having pagan wives. There were other incidences where he forced people to stop lending money at interest, (Nehemiah 5:10-13) and threatened people for breaking the Sabbath (Nehemiah 13:19-21). Nehemiah forced people to do the right thing. Jesus Also overturned the tables of the moneychangers in the temple (Matthew 21:12-13).

Rebuking a sinner, exposing corruption, correcting someone in love or disciplining ones children is not judging wrongfully. If so, Jesus and the Apostles who were our example to follow would have been in error. I believe that the Devil is lying to people to convince them that Biblical correction is judging. Therefore, many believe that it is fine to go on sinning and not obey God by warning others. This is the opposite of the example set by the Apostles. People are more likely to take note and remember strong stirring words. Strong words cause people to repent and not remain lukewarm. Bold ministry can turn people off but they would probably turn away anyway and be considered by God to be lukewarm. Therefore, they probably would have been rejected by God anyway. In the Bible people mostly either turned well away or became committed believers.

"1 Timothy 5:20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. Luke 17:3 Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. 2 Timothy 4:2 2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine. Titus 1:13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Titus 2:15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee."

If we don't warn someone in error to turn from evil, we are partly responsible. "Ezekiel 33:8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand."

Some of the bolder remarks also included in the verses at truechristianity.com/christian/bold.htm are: "Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.; Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers; Thy

More Efficient and Godly Professions

Christianity is not just about sharing, distributing information, caring and praying for people. A Christian gathering, church or community may need the services of many useful professions. However, our organization would not follow the corrupt system, in which people obey to avoid ridicule and losing their job. Instead, our system would use the best-known methods and volunteer, share and not worry about money. The main focus would be to do God's will, which may be teaching the gospel, helping the needy and purchasing tools (e.g. computer or car) if they're necessary for God's will. Expensive things are fine if they are a necessary expense. But often it is an unnecessary expense with many items like fashions which are to show off.

There are plenty of exciting things that people could do, such as researching truths that have been suppressed. There is probably a much more efficient and beneficial way to do almost everything. More beneficial technology does exist, but has been suppressed so that existing monopolies profit enormously and remain unthreatened. There is so much to read, especially on the Internet. Unless there is divine intervention it is impossible for one person to find the best methods, do God's ministry and manage the system effectively. The solution is to form an association that could communicate via the Internet or phone. Believers may work from their own homes in their own time, which would be more efficient and less stressful. Some may move together for more direct contact. We could find and communicate with people who have suppressed technologies, which are better than those publicly available. We may benefit from their technologies and convince the skeptics who may even join our group. These people who have invented suppressed technologies would often be poor, unfortunate, clever, hard working and honest, so they may be willing to help. A list of reliable Christian people and services could be formed so that believers would be led to the best people and services.

More efficient systems would mean that people would be better off both health-wise and financially. Some examples of exciting beneficial things include better and more efficient: weather forecasts; scientific discoveries; natural, drug free medical cures; energy systems; disaster avoidance; improved learning and teaching methods. Imagine how much less stress, bad company and workplace bullying would happen. Instead there would be more joy, contentment, work interest, happiness and honest friendships .

Workforce Problems and Solutions

A lot of paid occupations are good and deserve credit. However, there is evidence that most occupations in the workforce are not good due to the system's inefficiency, corruption and unnecessary work. People do not realize this. We need a better, fairer system and workforce.

Many occupations do not work for beneficial or godly purposes. They promote unnecessary or evil products and services. They teach and encourage selfishness, pride and a lust for money and the world. They involve misleading and deceiving people into worldly things that lead people away from God. Therefore, many jobs are doing more harm than good.

Many people who work for the corrupt system are honest, intelligent people who work hard. They could change the world if they worked for a better system. I respect many of them as friends. As they are subtly deceived we need to show them love and reveal a better system to them.

Much of the workforce is losing efficiency as people are forced to work longer hours and less staff are employed. Such manipulation is causing many problems, from accidents to fatigue. If the workforce is doing the things that God does not want, and you are working together with unbelievers or forced to work long stressful hours that are taking your focus away from God, it would be best to go elsewhere. You could still keep a similar profession if it is beneficial to society.

The problem is that most people are seeking a career that is corrupted, which provides excess money, instead of a volunteer one which would be much better, more enjoyable and more efficient for the community. Instead of the current professions in the corrupt system, which are highly inefficient, people could simply leave them and do almost the same thing that they are interested in which uses their existing skills.

For example, a teacher could leave the mainstream system to work for a True Christian school.

A scientist could research the best known methods instead of the accepted inefficient ones that will bring profit to corrupt corporations.

Someone in an employment agency could organize and encourage people to volunteer to help others in a Christian environment, instead of pushing them to work for excessive money in a corrupt system. Otherwise, they could be judged to be misleading people into hastening to get rich quick which often causes people to lose money and end up in poverty.

"Proverbs 28:22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him."

A government nurse or health worker in a non-Christian organization could start researching and using suppressed cures, instead of using the mainstream system's way of dangerous drugs or methods.

A member of parliament could change from being part of a mainstream political party to become an independent.

A meteorologist could start an Internet network of home-based weather stations, sky cameras and forecasters that would supply more information more efficiently and reliably than the weather bureau. I am trying to do this.

Believers need to leave the secular, degenerate educational system, which promotes deception, unnecessary information and greed. Instead they should study things that are useful and interesting. A wider choice is needed.

Useful Occupations

It could be fine to do a useful paid job such as making tents if you were offered the job in a non-corrupt system where you either work with believers or by yourself. This is so long as you use the money for God's will. On the other hand in today's society it would appear wrong to seek and apply through the corrupt system for a paid occupation such as a tent maker. This is because you would have to compete for the occupation, which could be judged as desiring money. Also, the workforce is so corrupt and inefficient

Christians in God's sight when they most likely are not. We need to therefore have an attitude of praying, caring and trying to save their soul, instead of yoking with them for ungodly purposes.

The Confusion Between Judging and Boldly Rebuking, Warning or Correcting Someone

Some people say all judgment is wrong by singling out the verse "Judge not, that ye be not judged" (Matthew 7:1). It is true that there are certain forms of judgment that we are not meant to make. The above verse is referring to one of these forms. However, there are instances where the Bible says that we need to judge. We need to read other verses and not only the one above.

Correction is not judgment, as the Bible says that we should correct, rebuke and be bold to those who are sinning. It is to be done in an act of caring for them in the hope that they will believe. That way we could contribute to the saving of a soul. If we don't, we could be responsible for suppressing the truth which could mean eternal death instead of eternal life for that person. "James 5:20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins."

Where the Bible says do not judge, it could therefore mean judging whether someone is born again or not born again. This is because in doubtful cases only

God can be the judge of this. The form of judgment that this verse says not to do could also be referring to a form of judgment that a person makes when they despise a sinner, while at the same time believing that they are worthy themselves. We should only correct in a humble way as an act of love. The Bible indicates to boldly correct people in an effort to bring them to repentance. We could say that someone may be eternally separated from God to spur them to repentance. But to say that someone is definitely saved or that they will be eternally separated from God would be wrong. "Romans 10:6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:) 7: Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)" There is no judgment yet. God performs the judgment at the end of the age.

We should not judge doubtful things or things by appearance but we are still meant to make righteous judgment on things that are clear in the Bible if we don't willfully do them. "John 7:24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. Romans 14: 1 Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations. 2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs. 3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. 4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand. 1 Corinthians 6: 1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law such as, healing, tongues and the laying on of hands. "1 Timothy 4:14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. 1 Cor 12:8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; 9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; 10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: 1 Corinthians 14:2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. 14:3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men [to] edification, and exhortation, and comfort. 14:4 He that speaketh in an [unknown] tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. 1 Corinthians 14:39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. Mark 16:17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; Acts 19:6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied."

I drifted away from Pentecostal churches when I heard that several people were leaving them and not being healed. There were disgruntled people who did not want to return to these churches and even believed that many things that they did were of the Devil. But this troubled me as I thought I experienced Jesus in my experiences with them. However, the Bible states that the people operating in these gifts are not necessarily Christians or doing God's will. It states that there are a group of people which are not born again that are using or claiming to use the gifts. "Matthew 7: 22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? 23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." This verse may apply to most people in the Pentecostal churches. We also see King Saul after he rebelled from God using the gifts of God's spirit. Perhaps disobeying God by ignoring most things covered in this report could be the reason why there are false prophecies, people not getting healed, and people being misled. God may not be using his full effect, as He wants to alert people that something is wrong. God could be giving people a taste of the gifts in the hope people will do what He commands so He can reward them with the full thing.

Then there are the lukewarm Christian churches that ignore the gifts of the spirit and the laying on of hands. Ignoring this means that many churches are spiritually dead and that they are not doing what God commands. The Bible states that today's church is lukewarm and not fully committed. They could be considered to be as follows: "2 Tim 3:5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away."

I can see God, as a positive God who would like to heal people and have them touched before him. If people did God's will there may be supernatural moves of God like in the times of the apostles. It would be wonderful to go around and pray for people and see them touched by God and turn to God. The mistake we make is that we assume that our friends are good and involves yoking with unbelievers. Workplace bullying is very common and destroys many lives. Seeking paid occupations is also such a gamble. Good paid positions are hard to find. Many people who have focused on trying to get a paid occupation have searched for years without finding one that is suitable. As a result it has often destroyed their lives. One reason for this is because they would be classed as unemployed people who are often discriminated against and suffer low self esteem. Also, it would cost them large sums of money and time to make applications. As a result they could be deep in debt and unable to repay people who helped them.

Some people who are doing useful things that are financially profitable could continue them if they are not working in a corrupt system or yoked with unbelievers. This would help fund the ministry. People in professions may be better off working part time to enable a balanced life with plenty of time used for God and helping other people. But the majority could do full-time volunteer work for God.

It is also possible that Paul may have not been making tents for money. He may have done it voluntarily to help someone.

Small Businesses

Statistics at <http://advantagein.com/statistics.htm> indicate that approximately 95% of small businesses fail to make a profit. Initially, most of them would expect to make a profit. The problem is in a corrupt system seeking money is like gambling where you mostly lose. If the system was different this would not be the case.

Even though small businesses are not directly working for the system, they are often tempted or forced to do ungodly things such as collect tax, compete, be yoked with unbelievers and seek excess money. If you could legally avoid these things most of the time it would be fine to offer useful goods and services for the community in a business.

Useful small business would be good to get into in a better system. But in the present system to succeed financially in most businesses one would probably have to deal with an unchristian company or have unchristian shareholders invest money in one's company. Unfortunately the people with the most money are mostly corrupt, and invest in many companies so that they can control them. Most inventors have been either ignored or detrimentally exploited by fraudulent companies. I believe that God seems to be saying that we should do his ministry instead of praying to succeed financially.

Therefore, in the current system it would appear wrong to seek to start a small business where you need to consistently rely on the corrupt system to generate a profit. However, if you are already in a small business that is doing a good service, it would probably be fine to stay in it so long as it does not take too much of your time, or force you to disobey God.

For example, years ago I started a business making and selling inventions. However, looking back, it was probably the wrong decision due to the difficulty of making a profit and the amount of time it took. However, I still have the business at advantagein.com, but I do not put much time into it any more even though the products are very useful and can benefit many people. Society is so misled that they often buy poorer quality products from large companies who have the money to advertise with. This gives the large companies an unfair advantage. But I am still leaving the business site on the Internet in case a good person is interested in investing in it or distributing the products. People can currently buy the products which I can get made up. However, they would be cheaper if I had someone to invest in, market and manufacture them on a large scale. I could dedicate all my time and the rest of my life to search for investors, marketers and manufacturers and not find anyone suitable who is interested. It is a gamble in the current system to succeed in small businesses. Hopefully one day God will guide me to find the people I need.

I do support useful small businesses. We would be better off with small businesses providing jobs and goods for people than the corrupt multinationals which often have poor quality services and products.

What Jesus Said

Satan mixes good with evil to deceive people that the system is good. Many things look good on the surface but underneath they are doing more harm than good. For example, many things save lives, but destroy the quality of life and the spirit.

Back in the time of Christ the tax collectors or publicans were considered evil and part of the world. Jesus indicated they were sick and needed converting. The disciples who were tax collectors gave their professions away to do God's work. Matthew 9: 9 And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. 10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. 11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? 12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. 13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

It must have been widely known that it was wrong to work for a corrupt system in Jesus' time. According to the Pharisees, tax collectors were considered to be so bad that they had no hope of salvation. The Pharisees indicated that Jesus should stay away from tax collectors as if they had no hope of being saved. Tax collectors were still needed as God said to pay taxes. However, it seemed that it was not for Christians to become tax collectors. The disciples (like Matthew) who worked for corrupt professions immediately left them upon conversion. Many of the so-called Christians today could be seen by Jesus as being much sicker than the tax collectors.

Charging Money Suppresses and Discriminates

The mainstream system asks for dollars to be paid for almost everything. This suppresses information, goods and services and hence prevents them from reaching those in need. This is because the items would be unaffordable for many people. The system discriminates against the needy and creates greed and poverty. Currently, people either need to be carrying money or risk large financial

2:16 For all that [is] in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. Rom 1:30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Rom 1:32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

Is the Church Teaching the Correct Things? Should we be Using the Gifts of the Spirit?

I do not know of any churches that teach what the Bible fully says. Many teach the truth about the initial steps to salvation. However, often they either teach things that are not clear in the Bible or take away the Bible's teachings. For example, there are the Pentecostals who try to practice the gifts of the spirit, but mostly they don't practice many other things spoken of in this report. I believe and have experienced praying in tongues and falling down before God after people prayed for me in a Pentecostal church. At the time I felt and still believe that it is God's spirit as it weakened me for a short time while I was strong in the presence of the Lord. Also, physically feeling the power of God makes God more real and gets peoples attention. If we pray to the true father God and Jesus it seems logical that it would do people good and it is resisting the Devil. There are cases in the Bible where people behaved in a strange way when they were prayed for. The cases could be considered similar in some ways to cases in Pentecostal churches today. "Mark 1:23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let [us] alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. 26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. Mark 3:11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God. Mark 7:25 For a [certain] woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet: Luke 9:42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare [him]. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father. Luke 4:35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not."

Some people claim that the supernatural events in Pentecostal churches that are described above are of the Devil without being able to prove it. It is very dangerous to claim that something is of the Devil when it is not. This could be considered as blaspheming the Holy Spirit where there is no forgiveness. "Luke 12: 10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven." If you are unsure it is best not to say anything. It could be that the demons that control people's lives are squirming when they feel the power of God, but I believe praying is still what God wants us to do more of.

We have a very short life on earth. Wouldn't it be better on earth to suffer a little bit or go without a few luxuries to do God's will and help others? This will give us more joy anyway than our luxuries would give. The alternative could be a lost eternity and torment. If you do the right thing you will be rewarded in Heaven with more than just the few luxuries that you missed out on earth.

Pride

The word pride is often misused. People say it means being respectful and looking after things. There is nothing wrong with this. In the Bible pride, which means showing off and boasting, is evil. "James 4:16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil." Many people sin by being proud of themselves, or boasting how good they are. It is common to hear people to say "I am proud of myself, or who I am or where I am". But couldn't such language be considered as boasting in God's sight? God condemned the proud but favored the humble. An example of this is in Luke 18:14 where the humble tax collector was received by God, while the proud Pharisee was not.

Below are some scriptures talking about pride. Luke 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified [rather] than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. Job 40:12 Look on every one [that is] proud, [and] bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place. Psa 12:3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, [and] the tongue that speaketh proud things: Pro 15:25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow. Pro 16:5 Every one [that is] proud in heart [is] an abomination to the LORD: [though] hand [join] in hand, he shall not be unpunished. Pro 21:4 An high look, and a proud heart, [and] the plowing of the wicked, [is] sin. Isa 2:12 For the day of the LORD of hosts [shall be] upon every [one that is] proud and lofty, and upon every [one that is] lifted up; and he shall be brought low: Lev 26:19 And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass: Pro 13:10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised [is] wisdom. Pro 16:18 Pride [goeth] before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall. Pro 29:23 A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit. Isa 28:3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet: Mal 4:1 For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. Jam 4:6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Dan 4:37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works [are] truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase. Dan 5:20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: 1Jo losses if they are using credit cards. This creates hassle and wastes time due to bookwork, posting checks and transactions. If individuals had to pay to see my web sites, I would be lucky to get one reader per month. Instead I get over 100 per day and people can donate if they wish. Often those selling products not only fail to get their material or service to benefit society but, also, mostly fail to make a profit. However, we should offer people money or barter something in return for their help. Our group could make things freely available to those in need, which would make people grateful and want to help in return. The Apostles did not desire money for themselves but worked hard to benefit others. They shared their wealth generously. It is hard to find people today that follow in these paths. If you know of any, please let me know.

Facts and Statistics on the World System

All statistics and facts stated are referenced at advantagein.com/statistics.htm

The Bible clearly teaches that although there is a minority of true Christian organizations and people, the world's system is evil, and an abomination to God. Ezekiel and Jeremiah are only some of the books in which this is evident. The Bible also says it will be worse in these last days. The danger is that many so called Christians are part of this system and doing the same things as the majority of unbelievers. Many things that man teaches to be good are actually evil. They look to be good in most nominal Christians eyes, but actually they could lead people away from God. It is important to warn people of the dangers of evil, as the prophets did in the times of Noah, Lot, Ezekiel and Jeremiah.

Something must be wrong when approximately 90% of the world's population are worse off financially than the average pensioner, while at the same time the richest 5% are seeking to earn more money for themselves. Wealth distribution is totally corrupt, because the most honest, hard working, ambitious, intelligent and innovative Christian people may be poor, while lazy and corrupt people may be rich.

People are conditioned to be positive even if they are working for the world's system, despite the fact that they are often disobeying God, and that things are going wrong. In these cases, often people have to lie to be positive. They therefore encourage others to follow suit. Other people are therefore lured into the mainstream system. This includes the commonly known; workforce, education system, churches and the pursuing of material goods and popular things. People even pray for people to make excess money in the world system, instead of encouraging them to work for God. It is dangerous to indicate that things are better than they really are. To succeed financially in the world system you often have to be on the same wavelength as the world, and therefore risk corruption by it. We need to be positive about godly things instead.

A Powerful Challenge to Bring Revival

Introduction

This chapter gives specific and practical examples of the things which we consistently need divine help for. It also gives specific ways that people can prove if God is definitely in their lives. Sharing this chapter would encourage people to become more committed, realize the truth, and search for the truly born again believers. Then they could help us to find or walk with God. The benefits would be enormous if we could walk with God so that He can help us in the ways described below.

I challenge anyone to contact me if he or she doesn't agree with this information and has had a supernatural experience with God. As explained in earlier chapters, the Bible says that there should be a dramatic and measurable difference between the believers and unbelievers. Believers are promised answered prayer and a greater percentage of desirable outcomes than the ungodly receive, or what the laws of probability would suggest. This happened to the apostles. It is promised in the Bible because God says He will help his people in their daily needs. Obvious evidence of a powerful God occurred for the apostles and it is still promised to occur in the lives of the Godly people today. However, nobody we know has produced evidence to us that God helps them in the areas described below. If you claim that God answers your prayers, can you produce evidence that it is really God's influence in your life, and not just natural desirable outcomes. You need to remember that rare healings and other desirable outcomes can happen naturally for unbelievers.

You would think that if persons were led by God as some claim, those persons would be supernaturally led to contact us and pray with us so that we would find what we seek and make the correct decisions. They should also be able to contact us and advise us of the exact people who can help. Also, everything these persons claim the Holy Spirit says should be correct. Otherwise they are either false prophets or do not know the voice of God. They should be able to pray for us so we can be healed or so that we can have a closer relationship with God.

If these people who have claimed supernatural contact with God and miraculous healings say that their prayers do make a difference, they should be motivated to go to areas in the world where people are seeking God and need a revival. Jesus said to go to those in need and preach the gospel to the entire world. We need people to join us to minister and pray for people in our area such as in hospitals. I challenge the people of God who claim that supernatural things are happening today to visit or work with us. If that is not possible, we can still communicate and pray together so that we can find the people who can help. My local friends and I are from Australia, but I communicate with other people around the world who also need similar help. I can refer them to you. We are happy to help people with their travel expenses, if they can prove what they claim, and if we are very satisfied with their ministry. We also need someone to briefly work with us and we are happy to pay them in order to complete a few projects.

If God is truly guiding someone, they should be able to defy Murphy's Law and be divinely led to what or who we need so they are convenient and available. There should be less frustrating problems. As a result your work should be more efficient than an unbeliever.

You would think that somebody truly led by God should be able to pray for the names and contacts of the people in the world that can help us. Then when I ways. For instance they support shorter working hours and oppose globalisation, company mergers and job layoffs. But remember Satan mixes truth with error, so that he can deceive people that he is correct in all ways.

Challenging Questions on Unnecessary Things

One of the main problems today is that many people are using the excess money that they gain for unnecessary things, instead of using it to do God's will. Too much time is spent on the things which are probably unnecessary, wrong or evil in the sight of God.

If the things most people take for granted as being good are wrong, almost everyone is at fault. So called Christians are doing or buying things that rich people accept as normal such as having holidays that cost excessive money and are not for God's purpose; playing serious competitive sport; being involved in unnecessary education; tidying or cleaning their property more than needed for show; unnecessary gardening that is not for practical purposes such as shade, privacy, food or a means to lead people to God; fancy or unnecessary cooking not needed to be healthy; buying products, property or services not needed for practical purposes or God's will; buying possessions more expensive than needed; choosing to invest in places that don't do God's will, (especially large companies who make big profits to pay their greedy executives); being involved in any of the arts that don't glorify God; toys that are more expensive than which can be afforded by most in the third world; buying gifts that people don't need; having parties that cost money and don't glorify

God; jewelry apart from a low cost wedding or engagement ring which is probably good so that people will know who is married; cosmetics; fashions; ornaments; decorations; Christmas trees; pets with no practical benefit; Easter eggs; unhealthy food; gambling; drugs; souvenirs; entertainment's or enjoyments not for God's will; reading fiction books, magazines and novels, which do not educate, towards Godliness and watching programs such as movies that do not inform people for God's purpose.

Most people in the world would be so unfortunate that they would not be able to afford or do many of these things. These things are highly esteemed by men. "Luke 16:15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God." If people are doing and asking for the correct things, God promises that they will receive a blessing. Presently many are asking but not receiving a blessing. "James 4:3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts." Do you think that people are not receiving blessings because they are doing the previously mentioned things? These things are not giving people enough time or money for God's will and are denying other people an opportunity to do God's will. They are also destroying honest godly businesses that provide useful goods and services, as people won't have the time or money to use useful goods and services. Couldn't these things which are not necessary be wrong or evil? "2 Kings 17:12 For they served idols, where of the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing." (c) Wouldn't these things be considered idols

And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God." It certainly is highly esteemed among men to earn excess money. The safest way is to assume that almost certainly the things, which are highly esteemed and made popular by men, are evil or used for evil.

Therefore, the mainstream things people blindly accept or like are most probably evil, as in Jeremiah's time. Because most of the media, the education system, the government and most people with money and power are controlled by the conspirators, there is very good reason to be suspect of anything that they promote. It is safer to assume that a minority have the truth, and that the majority are wrong. The rule is that things must line up with the Bible, and not necessarily what man's existing system says.

Some people suggest that we need to use evil worldly things to win people to God. For example, rock music which contains satanic messages. Why would God want us to compromise and use evil methods to win souls to God when there has to be a better way that could not harm people?

Are Christians??? in Trade Unions in Danger?

One example of mixing Christianity and the world is when many people who call themselves Christians are members of Trade Unions. Trade Unions cater for the minority of semi wealthy or wealthy people in the world. However, some Trade Union members in poor countries would be considered poor, based on certain standards, but they would still be rich compared to the poor people in their country that the Trade Unions are destroying. Trade Unions are encouraging the richest 5% of people in the world to be more greedy and proud. They desire more wealth for their own selfish ambitions. Trade unions leaders are also responsible for organized crime. (See abc.net.au/4corners/stories/s204701.htm, abc.net.au/4corners/stories/s204701.htm and abc.net.au/7.30/s296609.htm). Some have roots in communism and the Illuminati. The final form of the Illuminati was formed on May the 1st 1776, which is May Day. Trade Unions March each year when this day is celebrated.

Many Bible verses indicate that people may be eternally separated from God if they are members of evil organizations like the Trade Unions. This is because they are deceived into wanting more for themselves and not caring about the vast less wealthy hard working majority. It is the less wealthy hard working majority who these unions are destroying by taking away their right to earn an income. The groups which trade unions are destroying include the unemployed, carers, pensioners, small business and consumers. Higher wages mean higher costs for small business, who cannot afford to employ people. This means higher unemployment, higher inflation, higher interest rates and more people in small businesses going bankrupt. In countries where wages are above the world average, we are better off lobbying for lower costs and not higher wages. Trade unions therefore hurt the poor and the economy.

Trade Unions are correct in some contact those people they should all be the correct people to help. If someone claims that God led them to a decision it should always be correct.

If anyone claims that it is truly God guiding them and not just their imagination, they should be able to produce the evidence. There are a 5 examples of how to do this below.

1. One way would be if we gave them a choice of the difficult decisions we need to make. They should then be able to pray and get an answer from God and the answer should always be correct. For example, if we lost something and gave those led by God a choice of possible locations where the lost item is, they should be able to give us it's correct location.

2. If we needed some technical advice, the people of God should be able to pray so that God leads them to the correct decision or to people who can help. Their choice should always be correct, if they claim that God is leading them.

3. If some equipment has a technical fault that is hard to find and repair, someone that is led by God should be able to pray with us and hear from God the cause of problems and how best to solve them. If the answers are from God they should be correct.

4. We need people to help achieve projects, such as promoting groups or services to benefit the community. We could spend all of our lives searching for and trying different people, but then find they were not helpful. Many people appear good, but can actually do you a lot of harm. You would think that the people truly led by God would be able to direct us to the correct people that we needed. One example is we need people to come to Australia to work with myself or my friends that are also seeking God.

5. The people who claim to be led by God should be able to pray for us so that we will know God's will, and have the desire to do it. They should be able to pray that we will easily be able to find what we need to do it and it should be available. If they are truly led by God, their prayers should be answered as promised in the Bible.

The Bible commands us to pray for others and their needs, so do you, or do you know of anyone who would take up these challenges?

Who do you know that is alive today that receives and finds what they ask God for most of the time as promised in Luke 11:9? Who do you know who is alive today that has all or even most things working out for good as promised in Rom 8:28? Who do you know that is supernaturally led by God to make the correct decisions and remember things consistently? Who do you know who is alive today that has prayers which make a noticeable difference as promised in James 5:16? Who do you know who is alive today that has all or even most of the signs that they believe as promised in Mark 16:17-18 and Luke 10:19? Who do you know who is alive today that has consistent peace and joy as promised in Gal 5:22 during turmoil and frustrating problems?

These questions are asked in more detail on the forum at truechristianity.com/philosophy where you can leave your answers for others to see if you wish. Otherwise you could just send the answers to me.

10 Points of Evidence for Divine Leading.

People first need to produce evidence that they obey God and that the Holy Spirit and Jesus Christ are in their lives, because the Devil can produce miracles.

I am not saying that people are definitely not born again or ever led by God if these signs are not there. I am suggesting if these signs are not there, people are probably only imagining that they are led by God. This is because, if the people were consistently led by God, they would be noticeably different to the average unbeliever, and the evidence of God's promised help would be very obvious. It must be remembered that the most important sign that someone is led by God and born again is that they believe and obey what God stands for as explained on the other pages at truechristianity.com .

If there is no doubt that people are led by God, the following things listed should happen more than would naturally be the case for unbelievers, so the result could not be a coincidence.

For example:

1. People led by God should be able to find what they need to complete a task, and should not lose things so often. If something is lost they should be able to pray and then be led to the correct location to find it.

2. What they need should be convenient and available without frustrating searching and delays.

3. They should be led to the correct decisions so that when we look back we realize it was the best decision and not a mistake.

4. Less things should go wrong in ways such as breakdowns, failures and accidents and if things do go wrong the people led by God should be led to what the problem is without a lot of time consuming and painful trial and error.

5. They should be able to read, remember and comprehend more efficiently than an unbeliever.

6. They should be able to remember to do particular tasks at the appropriate time.

7. They should be led to be in the right place at the right time to make use of an opportunity.

8. God should noticeably help them so that normally random events should work together well to enable a task to be completed efficiently and save time, so more of God's work can be done. There should be less obstructions and interferences. Unpredictable events such as phone calls, rainfall and fine weather should occur at convenient or necessary times. For example, on a day when you need to travel somewhere and don't have transport it should coincide with a day your friend has to drive to that place and he can give you a lift.

9. Due to the above, a person led by God should be able to complete tasks more efficiently than someone not led by God. For most of us, frustrating setbacks cause tasks to take longer than we hope. However, a person definitely led by God should have less of these problems and be satisfied with the time their task took. They should be able to produce the evidence that they are led by God if they visit us so we could watch them work. It should be obvious God helps them and the result should not be able to be attributed to coincidence.

10. Their prayer for people should be able to make a noticeable and measurable difference, with some supernatural healings occurring. For example, a person led by God should be able to visit our area and pray with us for people in a hospital who have an illness and brimstone: which is the second death."

"Deut 18:10 There shall not be found among you [any one] that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, [or] that useth divination, [or] an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, 11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. 12 For all that do these things [are] an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee."

The Bible is of much more profit to read and of greater benefit. Being informed of the truth makes people alert to reality and they can help others avoid tragedy and have a better life.

Education. Is it doing more harm than good?

It is good to study true and useful things. But for many reasons it is strongly advised not to have your education at a Government or non-Christian school or university. Public non Christian schools and universities teach unnecessary things to people who would not normally be interested in them, although some of those things are of use to some. People are denied the opportunity to learn what is useful to them as a result. I enjoyed practical maths and physics, but others didn't. They would have been better off doing something else such as practical work, even if it meant that they left school. Instead these people often slowed the class down and misbehaved due to lack of interest. The high-pressure system deceived them that they had to get a high mark to compete to make excessive money in corrupt professions. This is assisting the conspirators and Satan. Public education is also controlled and infiltrated by the conspirators.

Solutions and a Christian Method

A True Christian school would be great for everyone. It could still teach the marvels of practical maths and proven science to glorify the creator, for those who are interested. But it would take out unnecessary theory, fiction, serious competition, pressure, bad company and the deceptive teaching that man's evil philosophies are good.

Some people who are not interested in school should be encouraged to leave school and do practical work or an apprenticeship where they would be taught some practical information, such as mathematics and English that they are likely to use.

What does God Think of the most Popular Things?

So-called Christians regard many things as good, which are evil. "James 4:4 - Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? I John 2:15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. Luke 16:13-14 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. And the Pharosoes also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him. 15 workforce today is that Christians are associating with the same unbelievers for a long time each day. It is fine for Christians to work with other Christians, or by themselves. They could also work for an unbelieving boss in a non-corrupted workforce, so long as the believer is not influenced by or in close proximity to the same unbelievers for a significant period of time. The problem with associating with the same unbelievers is that people are drawn into bad company, and exposed to work place bullying. For the above reasons, it is probably best not to work with an unbeliever, unless it is only for a very short time and not often. Christian volunteer work doing God's will is the best work that you can do, as you don't take more money than you need, and you can easily avoid being yoked with a corrupt workforce or unbelievers.

I am not saying that we should isolate ourselves from the world. We should mix with unbelievers in the world to minister to them and help them. But we should not be living or working with the same unbelievers for a long time if they refuse to listen or believe.

Working with unbelievers would be fine if we do not have to experience their company too often. For example, we could have unbelieving members in some of the groups explained at advantagein.com/extraordinary.htm or advantagein.com/overview.htm. We could work with and help unbelievers, but we would not be in their company for several hours a day and every day like in the secular workforce.

People have written stating that we need to work in the world system to get to know and convert those around us. But how much time do you think the system of long working hours and pressure would allow for that? Someone not in the corrupt workforce would be able to meet and minister to more people in a day than someone working for the corrupt system may do in years. They would not be bound by corrupt regulation that puts profit before people. Someone not pressured by the system would have more time to visit and help and minister to people, yet they could still work on something that they are talented at with other Christians. Non-Christians would see Christians setting the example to practice their ministry instead of giving the impression that it is fine to be part of the world.

The Danger of Fiction

Some fiction is good provided it is clear that it is fiction and has a godly or practical purpose like the parables. Sometimes, fiction may be necessary to give a picture to explain or remember something.

The reading or listening to almost all fiction causes people to have no time to study the truth. Also, most fiction causes some people to confuse fiction with reality. Highly esteemed things such as fiction novels often encourage witchcraft and magic. This is especially the case with Harry Potter. The Bible says that people practicing witchcraft and magic will be eternally separated from God, if they don't repent as indicated by the below verse where sorcery means magic and witchcraft. "Rev 21:8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire or disability that cannot be naturally cured. At least some of the time those sick or disabled people should be supernaturally healed so that the doctors could prove that this was the case.

How Do You Know a True Prophet.

If someone claims to be a prophet of God they should be able to warn people of a disaster such as a plain crash or an Earthquake, and what they claim should be one hundred percent correct. If not they are a false prophet. Deuteronomy 18: 20-23 indicates that false prophets should be sentenced to death. So many people claim to be led by God and to be prophets but they cannot produce the evidence that they are. They are most likely not led by God because they are led to disagree and make false claims and prophecies. That is why it is important to challenge people to prove themselves because they may be subtly deceived and regarded by God as false prophets.

Prophecies should be recorded in writing, made public and scrutinized.

If You Claim to Be Definitely Correct and Led by God

If you claim that you are divinely led and that you feel God is in your life, what makes you different to the other people who make a similar claim but are deceived? Why couldn't you be deceived because many people disagree with you and believe that you are still lost? Those people claim to follow the Bible and be divinely led.

If you claim that God answers your prayers and helps you or the other people you know, what about the times when there was no obvious answer or divine help? Isn't this the case most of the time, and if so, wouldn't it indicate that something is wrong? If God is really leading and helping you and the desires are from him, you would think that they would be fulfilled. Your desires should be fulfilled and your decisions should prove correct. We do not know anyone who is helped and led by God as explained here. If you claim to be, you should be able to easily produce the evidence.

Conclusion.

The challenge is to find the people who can produce evidence that they are definitely led by God and that Jesus has a controlling hand in their lives. You would think that they would be led in the above ways. If we can find them they could help and pray for us. They could cast out our demons so that we could effectively do God's work and obey him

I welcome people to contact and visit. It is important to keep searching and seeking because I believe that there probably are divinely led Christians like described above out there somewhere in the world today. Even if there are not, the Bible does prophesize a future revival when they will appear.

The Benefits of Sharing & the Danger of Not

We don't really own anything. It is God who does. The only reason why some people have blessings and possessions is because they were given them by God, and not because they worked hard, or because they were good and honest people. People who are well off could be in desperate poverty and dying if they were born in another country, even if they are good, hard working, honest Christians. Therefore, being well off is a test for people to do God's will.

Mostly, the poverty of the poor is not their fault, but the fault of corruption, disasters, wars, multinationals, unjust prison detention, their country's policies, illness, abuse, technical problems, governments, high costs, trade unions, and other unfortunate circumstances beyond their control. If we could form a better system it would be fine to have a lot more personal wealth than suggested. You won't change the whole world system but in a small group we could form a better system independent of the mainstream one. If some wealthy people shared their wealth we would have more than enough finances to do what we need and help others.

God wants us to live in abundance but people are trying to gain abundance in the wrong ways and use their wealth on the wrong things. It must be remembered that the Bible says things are worse in these last days than when Christians could fairly live in abundance. Now there is more competition than before. So to gain money you have to compete more against and disadvantage other poor honest Christians. This is because the wealthy do not share.

Strong Economies only Benefit a Few

There is more than enough wealth and money in the world to adequately provide for everybody's need, but the problem is it is not distributed to those who need it. Therefore, in most communities to gain wealth and not use it for a good purpose it has to disadvantage someone else. A corrupt few individuals accumulate most of the wealth so that only a limited amount of wealth is distributed to the average person. Therefore, for an average person to gain wealth it has to be taken off another average person.

One example is where the government wastes money on unnecessary things that benefit the rich at the expense of the poor. Poor people are starved of funding and also pay taxes to the government. Their tax money is given to the rich and wasted. The government only has a limited amount of money in the budget.

Some people wrongly believe that strong economic activity benefits everyone. Often in countries with the largest wealth there is more poverty. The rich are getting richer, and the poor poorer. Countries and people are becoming more indebted. The gaining wealth of the multinationals is doing the opposite of making the average person prosper. It is resulting in the destruction of useful small businesses that cannot compete. Therefore, local jobs, services and wealth are lost.

Facts on Wealth Distribution

It is no good if part of the body of Christ spends excess money on unnecessary things that are not for God's will while most of Christ's body are struggling to survive and fund their activities to do God's will.

Instead of working to help others and do God's will, most people are working to help themselves, while harder working people who are less well off have their lives destroyed. It is up to you to change, as you can't rely on evil people or the government to do anything, as most rich people are the least helpful. People think that they deserve excess money because they worked hard, but the problem is, that most of the world is in poverty, despite many working hard. Therefore, by using your money or time for unnecessary things and not God's will, you could be with everyone else, would be doing well and there would be such a great variety innovative products and services. Instead these products and services have been suppressed, so that we have to rely on a corrupt system. Fair price control should be used to benefit everyone and stop companies from making large profits. Instead of competing with each other, small specialist outlets focusing on very similar things could work together and share profits. Fair price control could be used to ensure fair and low prices. More fair regulation would ensure groups of businesses don't become too domineering. This would give a more fair chance for small specialized businesses because they would not have to compete. Instead of some businesses marketing many products that other nearby businesses sell they could focus more on the ones they know about. The system would be far more efficient without people wasting time shopping around. There would also be less advertising costs.

God's kingdom is about loving, sharing, contentment, praise, joy and giving, which are the opposite of competition.

Yoking With Unbelievers

It is good to mix with unbelievers to love and convert them. If you can convert them, then you can happily yoke together. We should revisit some people even if they don't believe at first, as conversion can take time. Jesus did the right thing by loving and mixing with sinners and tax collectors for the purpose of converting them. But He did not yoke, work and live with the same people if they did not believe. Jesus and the Apostles moved on if people did not believe, and met other people, trying to convert them. However, the false church of today is wrongfully encouraging people to live or work with the same unbelievers, and also work for the corrupt system, which is now worse than it was in the time of the Pharisees.

If you work or live with someone it is a natural psychological thing to copy them. There is more chance people will be led astray if they live or work with bad company. If they are yoked with bad company, Christians are tempted to do unchristian acts which can lead them away from God. It is therefore obvious why the Bible warns us not to yoke with unbelievers. 2 Corinthians 6:14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? 15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? 16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you. God is calling us to come out and be different to the mainstream, and not to be the same as or follow the mainstream.

Living with unbelievers sometimes cannot be helped. For example, someone may need to live with their parents or someone to care for them so that they can gain the practical help that they need. In such cases an effort should be made to find committed Christians to live with. However, this can often take some time.

The problem with many places in the that do not know the product.

Today we have a system where there are too many people competing to do the same thing, and too few people serving others and doing God's will. People are therefore taking a limited number of paid jobs and money away from honest people. If one succeeds in a career or enterprise to make money, they are therefore preventing someone else succeeding under such a competitive environment of limited opportunities. This is not a problem if they use the money for God's will. People try hard to unsuccessfully find paid work and money for many years as a result. The honest people who often try hard, often have their lives destroyed as a result.

Someone who was involved in the occult quoted "Satan's entire kingdom runs on the principle of competition; just the opposite of God's kingdom where everyone serves each other. (See <http://www.mt.net/~watcher/bluey.html>)" That report describes how witches compete for demons to destroy each other.

It is strange that the so-called Christians say that competition is good, and that it is what we should be doing!!! Unlike the Apostles who gave their worldly professions away to work for the Lord, people of today are competing to study or work for a corrupted system.

However, there are some exceptions, where doing God's will involves some serious competition that can't be avoided. For example, we all need some limited natural resources and money to survive and obtain the essentials. Taking these would disadvantage others and be considered competitive. But if we seek to do God's will, we can help people in return for taking what we need. Therefore, the net benefit would be good.

Non-serious competition is probably good when it is for exercise, personal motivation and used as a means to lead people to God.

But when it comes to serious competition there are many problems such as over training, lust for worldly success, money and medals. There is pride if you win and distraction from doing God's will. When you lose there is anger, disappointment, envy, regret and resentment. The disappointment and low self-esteem incurred by people losing is causing suicides, drugs, family breakdown, crime, injuries, anger with God, and people not being thankful to God. These things are not from God.

Consider the example of the Olympic games. It has medals containing the Greek goddess of victory and is highly riddled by drugs and corruption. It encourages, competition and greed, along with the worship of idols. The Olympics causes addiction in sport to distract the elect. It wastes money, which is the goal of the international bankers who profit from the interest. It honours the Olympic spirit and the flame. This is a god of the Olympics. Worshiping other gods is diabolical in God's site. The Olympics is highly esteemed by men, therefore an abomination in the sight of God. (See Luke 16:15.)

Other serious sport encourages greed and large payouts, and it motivates people to desire fame and fortune. Gambling, match fixing and bribes are an unfortunate by-product.

God's way and a Solution

Instead, God's way is a rightfully regulated fair go for everyone where everyone is well off. If that was the current practice, small businesses along guilty in God's sight of destroying Christian people, who are less well off. If you don't use your money or time for God's will, you are preventing people from getting saved by not hearing the gospel.

On a pensioners income people would normally be able to afford a reasonable house or flat, a cheap car, enough food, clothes and some extras if they don't waste their money. The medium income in wealthy countries is approximately as much as a pension. That means most people do not earn much more than a pension in countries with a high standard of living. Many of these poor people honestly work hard. They include almost all small businesses, volunteer workers and many sincere unemployed people who are trying very hard. Therefore, in countries of high standards of living if you earn more than a pension you would be gaining excess money or more money than you really need for yourself compared to others.

Who God judges as rich is probably not who the bureau of statistics judge to be rich.

It could be that anyone who keeps more money than a pension income in countries with high standards of living is considered wealthy in God's sight. This is because they are in approximately the top 5% of income earners in the world. They are also in approximately the top 5% in the world when it comes to their standard of living.

Many scriptures indicate that if you have more possessions or earn more money than most, you must not use your excess income or possessions for yourselves but instead use it for Godly purposes. Hence, this will include everyone who earns more than a pension in countries of high standards of living. Every Christian should seek to use all their time and money for God's will. If they don't, they are in extreme danger of judgment, which could be a lost eternity.

Some people are forced to invest their money in something secular as part of a condition to receive an injury compensation claim. This is so they will have money to pay for future carers and necessary goods. The investment could include useful real estate. Other people gain large sums of money through acceptable means such as an inheritance. It will take time for these people to decide where to use the money for God's will. In the mean time they would need to invest it in something like useful real estate.

God would be understanding of people who intend to do God's will, but make mistakes by mistakenly doing or buying the wrong things. We at least need to seek and try to do God's will, even though we all make mistakes.

Who Benefits Society the Most

One article mathematically proves that people who work hard for no pay, or people who use all their income for God's will are a net benefit to society. However, people who earn excess money and don't use it for God's will have a negative impact.

People earning and keeping more money than they need, have to take money that is either:

1. from the Government, (if they are public servants).
2. as wages from a poor small business manager, or charges to a poor person.
3. from a company, which causes that company to charge higher costs to poor people.

This money taken from society increases the country's debt and the personal debt of people. Therefore, it gives more control to the corrupt powerful corporations. To gain money, it has to come from somewhere, to the disadvantage of someone or something else. This however, is not a problem if the person receiving the money uses it for God's will.

Biblical Examples and Verses

In the case of the rich young ruler (Mark 10:21) (who wanted to be saved) and the rich man (Luke 16:19) (who did not help Lazarus), keeping money and not helping others were the only reasons mentioned why they did not enter Heaven. Instead, they are tormented in Hell. There are also many other verses showing the importance of wealth sharing below.

"James 5:1 Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. 2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten. 3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. Proverbs 13:7 There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches. Proverbs 21:17 He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich. Micah 6:12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. 1 Timothy 6:9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. Matthew 25:43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. 44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? 45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. 46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal. 1 John 3:17 - But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? Luke 3:11 - He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise. 13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you. 14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages. Mark 10:21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me. 23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! 24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into

of wealth for selfish purposes. These evangelists do teach a lot of truth but there is part truth almost everywhere. Teaching mostly truth deceives people that they teach all truth. Satan is very cunning at mixing truth with evil. Please read these reports and their evidence with an open mind before drawing any conclusions. They seem very well researched and a warning for us all. You will see a link to these references on the website.

"2 Corinthians 11:13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. 14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. Matthew 7:15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Acts 20:29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Matthew 24:24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

Does the Bible say that we need competition?

Introduction and the Apostles System

The Apostles did things God's way and everyone was well off. They all worked hard for God's purposes. Those with money and possessions distributed their wealth to provide for those in need. They did not compete against each other but served each other. They did not have to work with unbelievers or a corrupt system but worked together for God. This is a wonderful fair system, which the church sadly does not practice today. If the church did this, there would be less problems and the church could have a relationship with God as the Apostles did. "Acts 4:34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, 35 And laid them down at the Apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need."

The Problem of Competition

People say that we need serious competition to have fun, keep prices down have a large variety of goods and services. However, this is not true. In fact the opposite is happening, where there is predatory pricing. Powerful corrupt people and companies are competing against, taking advantage of and destroying people and businesses that are less well off. With the fair businesses gone, the monopolies raise prices, and their products are often of poor quality so that they need replacing. This means more profit for the multinationals at the honest persons expense. Destroying poor, honest innovators and small businesses means that good products and services are suppressed. This is resulting in a smaller variety of goods and services, and making these more expensive.

Competition encourages many outlets to sell the same things, which causes confusion to shoppers, who spend excessive time shopping around. There is also often a lack of information from staff private personal information. This enables them to monitor how they are destroying society, and enables them to work out the next subtle plan of attack to gain greater control.

The Conspiracy Compared to a Pool of Water

The situation can be compared to everyone being in a pool of water where the temperature of the water is rising. The people running the system have deceived almost everybody into thinking that they must stay in the water even though it is better when they get out. The lure in the water is money, which people hope will give them unnecessary pleasure in the world. They are in such vigorous competition to find money that almost no one is aware of what is going on.

Some are not aware that they are being cooked to death, and have not bothered to seek the truth, as the temperature is increasing gradually. Others hear the truth which only a few people spoke of, but they did not get out, as they did not believe the truth. Very few people climb out to safety. You could easily be one of them.

Are leading evangelists really Christians?

Sources indicate that some leading evangelists appear to be Christians, but are in actual fact deceiving and weakening Christians. If a leading evangelist says that it is fine to do the things of this world, many will believe them. There are many references that give strong evidence from many sources that some leading evangelists are actually working for the Illuminati and Freemasons. This appears likely, because if they did not, the Illuminati controlled media and organizations would not support them. Reports also state that these evangelists send people to Catholic and Non-Christian churches and that the media are not showing the full story of the meetings. These sources claim that some leading evangelists also support magicians, prostitutes, homosexuals, corrupt leaders, and others who practice the occult. Reliable references claim that some evangelists also support organizations linked to the conspirators such the World Council of Churches who are striving for a one-world order and a one-world church. They also state that some evangelists have multiple personalities and are under mind control. Some evangelists also accept practices such as abortion, rock concerts, communism and pagan religions. Initially, some evangelists don't support organizations which promote evil or try to form a one world order, but then they change to either supporting them, being funded by them, or not saying that they are evil. The sources claim that the evangelists have drifted away from strong fundamental organizations and no longer support them. They claim that people are allowed into the evangelists' meetings preaching false doctrine and that the evangelists run organizations that cover up crime and launder drug money. Evangelists also endorse books by apostates.

Obviously all the evangelists listed in these reports and links would not do all the above. However, they do claim that Billy Graham does. Other evangelists including Benny Hinn are not reported to be involved in the above but are claimed to be false prophets, and also teach prosperity doctrine and use a large share the kingdom of God. Luke 6:20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. 21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. 24 But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation. 25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. 26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets. 34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. 35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. Luke 12:16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: 17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? 18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods. 19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. 20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? 21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God. Luke 30 And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last. James 2:10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. 14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him? 15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, 16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? 17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. 18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. 19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble."

Then there is the case of Ananias and Sapphira who were struck dead by God for not obeying God and sharing their wealth. The below Scriptures appear to indicate that the condition to be a Christian is to not lie and to share ones wealth. Everyone below shared, unlike the church today. But the ones who did not share were punished. "Acts 4:34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, 35 And laid them down at the Apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. Acts 5:1 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? 4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. 5

And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things."

Verses also indicate that it is wrong to directly charge someone money when they are not expecting it. In 2 Kings 5 the punishment was that Gehazi and his descendants were struck leprous. Trying to make money and Christianity don't go well together. In Matthew 21:12-13 Jesus saw people trying to sell things in the temple and he aggressively drove them out. In Matthew 27:3-10 Judas Iscariot sold Jesus for 30 pieces of silver. In Matthew 28:13 the chief priests bribed the soldiers into lying about Jesus for a large sum of money. In Revelation 13:16-17 and Revelation 14:9-11, one will have to disobey God by taking the mark of the Beast to legally buy or sell.

Lukewarm Churches Mixed With the World

The Bible indicates that the Churches' beliefs are lukewarm. The below prophecy may relate to the church of the last 100 years, according to some scholars and historians who have matched the description of each church in Revelation 2 and 3 and related it to a particular time in history. The last church is the Laodiceans church. This probably corresponds to the last church of the age, and the description matches the church of today. As a result people who only believe the mainstream teachings are rejected. However, there may be some hot churches. "Rev 3:14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God; 15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. 16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. 17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked."

The mainstream church of today certainly fits this description. Most of the preaching is not deep and does not refer to the Bible enough. It is unlikely that people learn much about the Bible. Generally they hear things that they already know. God may consider some aspects of the mainstream Church of today the same as the Pharisees, which formed the mainstream church in Jesus' time. The Pharisees were proud arrogant people who wanted to show everyone how good they were. Jesus wants a humble loving heart that generously gives without showing off. He would not want one which openly gives a little often, for the purpose that it looks good to the congregation.

Also, verse 17 (above) states that the church will be focused on material things and money, more than doing God's will. This is very evident today, as people who go to church do the same things as the non-believers. They seek money and material things more than they seek God. They seek to be part of the same corrupt system as the unbelievers, instead of spending their time doing God's will. Much of the false church have or follow many of the worldly things that are not needed, cost money and take the focus away from God. Items are even sold inside the church. How would this compare to the time when Jesus drove out those people who bought and sold in the temple?

is causing honest hard working people to become bankrupt, when they lose more money than they make. Therefore, banks and multinationals can take their properties and gain more power.

Honest people often ask their friends and family for favours to help them start to make money. However, they are often unable to return the favour if their problems and bankruptcies linger on for years. They may have to spend all their time and money trying to get out of problems, and become a burden to others as a result.

The mainstream method of seeking more money than you are currently earning would therefore compare to gambling which is considered evil and leaves many people's lives destroyed. It is not money that is bad; it is the corruption you have to yoke with to get it. As a result, it is a gamble to get more than you need to survive which means you are likely to lose more time and money than you gain. Money is fine if you do not have to disobey God to get it.

A main controlling measure is to deceive the majority that the purpose of life is to spend most of your time to make money and spend it on really unnecessary things. People therefore desire unnecessary or ungodly products and services instead of good useful ones. Also, advertising by corrupt companies leads people to use redundant products produced by the corrupt companies. At the same time good products produced by honest companies are ignored. Therefore, good products and services mostly do not sell. The corrupt companies tied to the conspirators have money to advertise and mislead people while honest people promoting good things have little money to advertise with.

Their Goal is Waste and Creating Problems

The conspirators encourage and fund evil projects that cause waste and other problems to control people. These include wars, arms races, depressions, stock market crashes, major sporting events, movies, election campaigns, unnecessary and bad education, perishable products and drug companies. The conspirators create the money and lend it at interest to wasteful projects, so that they can profit from the interest and place the increasingly indebted countries and people under more control. They suppress inventions and discoveries so that the world is forced to rely on their products. People spend time and money on redundant products that bring the conspirators great profit.

The goal of the conspirators is for people to waste time and money so that they can gain more control. They distract people from edifying purposes and gain from the lending of money at interest. Mind control, which is achieved by, drugs, inefficiency, confusion, bad education, media, lust and unnecessary work, is a very powerful thing, and is enabling them to manipulate and sedate the majority.

Just think about how the system wastes time and money. Many times we wonder why things are done in a certain way, and we can think of a better way to do them. Many people put time and expense into promoting a better method, only to have their ideas suppressed.

Unnecessary paper work, duplication, and excessive questions in documents cause time and money to be wasted. The conspirators use answers from unnecessary questions on forms, to gain your duty. This is because you have to obey and use corrupt methods which means disobeying God. There is a lot of corruption exposed on the news in the Illuminati controlled media. But this must be the tip of the iceberg as there is much more suppressed. If people do wrong, the natural thing is to suppress it. You can therefore safely assume that there is widespread corruption in every worldly system. The danger in working for the system is that one could be working for the conspirators and Satan, who control the system.

The more people they lure to work for them, the stronger they become. It also means that less people are working for God.

Many may be totally unaware that they are working for a conspiracy, unlike those who would be part of the conspiracy. We should be turning away from yoking with the evil world system. If you knew an organization's goal was to force people to worship Satan, would you work for them? Do you want to be part of a system that is leading and causing you to deceive others? There are many different ways to work for God's purposes, where people can use all their existing skills.

The corrupt mainstream medical system forces and teaches people to take unnecessary and harmful drugs or therapy, to the benefit of the drug companies who have suppressed natural cures.

In most schools a teacher would have to teach what the system wants, even if it is bad for them and their students. People promoting or getting people interested in paid jobs would have to advise people to do something that is wrong in most cases. Anyone in the public service or in a large company would have to do and recommend things that the corrupt system does. For example, if you knew a better way to do something, you may not be able to use it or advise people of it. You would have to do wasteful things that deceive and hinder people, which is the goal of the conspirators behind the corrupt system.

There could hardly be a better way to get control of the world and force everyone to worship Satan, than to deceive everyone into being very busy but doing the wrong things, so that they are distracted from the truth. The Bible says that we should be busy and work hard, but we are to use our time for God's will. Being busy doing the wrong things is only helping Satan and hindering God's work. There are too many people seeking to earn more money than what they need, and not enough people volunteering to do God's will.

The Money Deception and Gamble

A major deception is that people believe that they will be better off if they seek money. Mostly the opposite is true. The conspirators deceive people into thinking that making money is easy and good, despite the fact that almost all small businesses fail. People trying to earn excessive money require more goods and services than someone who is satisfied with enough income to survive. These goods and services include energy, fuel, water, rent, interest rates, registrations, licenses and essential products. The problem is that these goods and services are mostly purchased from those with wealth and power. If people try to earn more money than they need for necessary things, it transfers wealth and power to those who are evilly planning a one-world dictatorship. At the same time, it

Are you satisfied with an apostate church that is disobeying God and will be spewed out of the mouth of God (Rev 3:14-17)? If you were a true Christian you would be standing up against evil and wanting to find the true church. A true person of God would not want to become part of the apostate church. In the New Testament, people of God spoke against evil and the mainstream church of their day who were the Pharisees. This could refer to all mainstream denominations. We can't compare today's churches with the Churches in Paul's time when there was a major move of God. Remember this is the last days (like the days of Noah) and mankind is generally more wicked now than they were in Paul's time. So all the churches we know of may be considered apostate in God's sight.

Is Christmas a Pagan Festival?

Giving people something that they need is a good godly way to show love and help others. However, the giving season could be so much better with much more joy. Solving and avoiding the below problems will mean everyone will have a much happier time.

Man's system is about giving, but it is about giving in the wrong way. It is about using the festive season to seek profit and gifts in return. It is about pride or showing others that you are better by being able to afford expensive gifts. It is about giving unnecessary expensive things that people often do not want.

Christmas actually started as a pagan festival. Nobody knows what day or month Christ was born. People claim that Christmas has now been turned into a Christian festival but the problem is that it is mainly not Christian. In fact, many of the things involved with Christmas are pagan or Satanic. Many people see Santa as a God. He is certainly distracting people from the real God. In the Bible other gods were condemned. There are many good gifts, but there are also many that are not useful and take over people's lives. The believers in God in the Bible certainly did not go to the people with pagan gods, and turn their festival into a partly Christian festival while allowing pagan activities to continue. Pagan activities were totally removed from the living or worshiping presence of the believers. In the Old Testament are many examples of where God was angry if they did not totally remove the pagan idols.

Christmas and Easter have to a great extent lost their true meanings and are largely about buying unnecessary products from multinationals. This is giving multinationals more profit and power and causing financial misery for poor people. The commercialisation of Christmas and Easter and the buying of Easter eggs and gifts which people don't need etc. are a way for the world system to focus people away from what they should be using their money and time for.

As indicated by the following reference the pagan roots of Christians stem from Mother and Child worship that begin in Babylon. They believed that the Goddess derived her godhead and glory from the son. The system of worship was passed down through later civilizations. The names of their gods were changed. The cults established holy days. On the Winter Solstice the birth was celebrated for the son of Isis the Egyptian Queen of Heaven.

The following section in italic print is quoted in an article by By Mark S. Watson.

"As time passed, this Mother Goddess religion transformed itself into various fertility cults that flourished in the ancient world. These mystery schools had special important 'holy' days that were celebrated. Consider this, it was during the Winter Solstice that the son of Isis the Egyptian Queen of Heaven, birth was celebrated. It is very interesting to note that these festivals were not celebrated by the Church of the first two centuries of its existence[iv].

. . . Some of the early church fathers have commented on the exchanging of gifts at Christmas time as being an observance of Saturnalia, a pagan winter festival. The Babylonians had an old fable of an evergreen tree[v] that sprang out of a dead tree stump symbolizing Nimrod, later known among the mystery schools as Tammuz. The Bible makes some reference of these pagan customs and holidays (Jer 10:3-4; Ezek 8:13-14; 1King 14:23). These all occurred during the winter solstice, that is, the time the 'Church' celebrates Christmas. The risen 'child god' rises from the dead three days after the winter solstice. The celebration today is commonly referred to today as Christmas. This is clearly NOT a Christian holiday. Despite the traditions of men, passed off as truth in the modern American Pulpit, this Holiday, is deceptively decked with lots of goodwill, songs and presents in order to deceive the masses into rejecting the truth.

. . . The only day Christ commanded us to celebrate was the Last Supper, the church has even missed to boat on this too, as Christ COMMANDED us to drink wine and eat bread in remembrance of him.

. . .Easter is another Babylonian abomination that has made its way into the Christian mainstream. The name actually comes from Ishtar, the Goddess of fertility in Assyria. However, this is simply the Babylonian Goddess Astarte, who was the consort for Baal. Being the Goddess of fertility, it was only natural that the favorite symbol of fertility be used in the spring festival that we now call Easter, that being the egg. Easter Eggs are the most visible representation of the fertility aspect of the spring pagan festival. Pastors who celebrate this are in grave violation of the Commands of Christ when they conduct the passion of Christ during this time. The Scriptures are very clear when Jesus was crucified it was on Passover. We know exactly when Passover is and we know that is when Jesus was crucified. Why does the mainstream 'Church' continue in the pagan abomination? Many mainstream pastors will never speak out about these and other abominations in mainstream (Protestant and Catholic) Christianity, if they did they would find themselves no longer welcome on Christian T.V., lucrative Church Circuit speaking engagements and may find their books will not be published by large 'Christian book' publishing houses."

True Conspiracies Affecting Everyone

Introduction

Many reliable Christian sources state that we belong to an evil system infiltrated by a global conspiracy that forces people to teach lies and worldly philosophies. The Bible is full of conspiracies. Even the word conspiracy is mentioned 10 times in the King James version. There is more information on the content of conspiracies and proof of these claims at trueconspiracies.com/.

Many do not know that the Illuminati and other powerful, evil organizations control the banking systems, media, education systems and much of the work force. They are the force behind the Council on Foreign Relations and the International Bankers, which are mostly controlled by the super-rich Rothschild and Rockefeller families. They control and have their people in the governments and have infiltrated every mainstream system. They are a very secret organization with a global conspiracy to rule the world and force everyone to worship Satan. They are gradually doing this now in a subtle way so that people will not be aware that they are being snared. They mix truth with evil, to slowly delude the masses into their hands.

Bible Prophecy of a Conspiracy

The Bible clearly predicts the formation of a one-world government with a terrible dictator or the Beast, who together with his partner, the false prophet, will kill anyone who does not worship him or his image. However, initially people from different religions will think that he is the great messiah. He will promise peace and perform miracles that will even deceive the wary people to worship him. He will then break his peace agreement. It will be far better to die than to worship the Beast or his image, as he will be controlled by Satan. The Beast will be Satan in the flesh, so by taking his mark on your right hand or forehead and worshipping him or his image, you are worshipping Satan and are destined for Hell (Rev 14: 9 - 11). There is much more information on this at truechristianity.com/prophesy

If you don't worship and take the mark of the Beast, the Bible says the world system will probably kill you. (Rev 6: 9-11, Rev 13: 15-17) You would probably either starve to death, (as you would not be allowed to buy or sell for not taking the mark of the beast) or be executed. People will have to make a choice between staying alive in torturous times (and to be eternally separated from God) or dying to do God's will, (which will mean eternal life). We are getting very close to this time.

The Workforce Deception

Obeying, working for, yoking with and submitting to evil things in the system to obtain excess money and worldly pleasures may be slightly similar in some ways to obeying the Beast and taking his mark.

Many are deceived without being aware of it. Like pawns in the game, they are then manipulated to unintentionally deceive others. People who are not on their guard unintentionally deceive others, despite loving them.

Many professions under the systems authority, including scientists and doctors, encourage suppression of the truth. For example, conflicts of interest occur. If the truth were told, it could mean people are put off from a particular profession or are subject to extensive ridicule. People are therefore likely not to tell the truth to avoid these things. Many inventions and discoveries that could have greatly benefited everybody have been suppressed in this way. Much corruption has been suppressed, which has resulted in the detriment of society. A profession that is part of and loyal to a corrupt system often means that you have to be corrupt to do
